THURSDAY, 13 SEPTEMBER

09:00 – 11:00	Plenary 4: Independent Prosecution and Confidence in the Eyes of the Public  Location: Plenary Hall The relationship between the prosecution and the public is essential. When it comes to ensuring independent prosecution, it is a well-known challenge in countries in every region of the world to ensure that independence is not only a practiced reality, but also a perceived reality in the eyes of the public. The perception of undue influence deteriorates public confidence in public prosecution. Central to public perception is also the role of the media as well as internet based communication platforms through which public perceptions are influenced and formed, and through which prosecution services communicate. The plenary session will be dedicated to this topic. Chair: Moipone Noko, Director of Public Prosecutions, KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Saak Karapetyan, Deputy Prosecutor General, Russian Federation</li> <li>■ Hri Kumar Nair, Deputy Attorney General, Singapore</li> <li>■ Stephen Herron, Director of Public Prosecutions, Northern Ireland</li> <li>■ Ahmad Barrak, Attorney General, Palestine</li> </ul> Rapporteur: Yulia Yepuri, Member of a Group of Prosecutors, Chief Military Prosecutor's Office, General Prosecutor's Office, Ukraine
