

Angela V. T Brooks – Deputy Director Public Prosecutions

Native to the island of Grand Turk in the Turks & Caicos Islands, Angela commenced her studies in Toronto Canada majoring in Sociology, however her vocal nature and dedication to a safe Turks & Caicos pushed her to commence Legal Studies in the United Kingdom. After completing her LLB at The University of Buckingham in 2000, Angela pursued a Master's Degree in International and Commercial Law. She then attended the University of West England where she received a Postgraduate Diploma, in Bar Vocational Studies, very competent in her field Angela also received a Certificate of Standing from the Honorable Lincoln Inn, of which she is a member.

On returning to the Turks and Caicos Islands, Angela gained employment with the Attorney General's Chambers as Crown Counsel and swiftly climbed the ranks to Senor Crown Counsel. In 2012 the DPP Office was created where Angela was appointed the coveted position as Deputy Director Of Public Prosecutions. The first local in this position.

She has received training in Children Rights, DNA, Proceeds of Crime and Drug Prevention. She is wife to Mr. Desmond Brooks and together they produced six (6) beautiful children. An avid member of society, Angela has also dedicated her time to lecturing at the Turks & Caicos Islands Community College, lecturing at the Royal Turks & Caicos Islands Police Force Training School, Human Resource Chair for the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force and Youth Pastor at New Beginning Ministries International.