

MARK CARROLL, O.B.E
DIRECTOR - CRIMINAL JUSTICE
INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE DEVELOPMENT

Mark is a highly experienced prosecutor and criminal justice advisor with over 25 years' involvement in the criminal justice field.

Mark has experience of working in the UK on complex serious and organised crime cases, public corruption and high-profile counter terrorism investigations and prosecutions. Mark has conducted overseas postings in Afghanistan, Kenya and Pakistan over eight years. Mark spent three years in the world-renowned Counter Terrorism Division of the Crown Prosecution Service at the forefront of national CT prosecutions. As National Cyber Terrorism Prosecution Lead, Mark drafted guidance for prosecutors, the security services and all police forces in England and Wales and delivered training across the UK, building capacity on cyberterrorism and CT strategic awareness training to prosecutors and investigators. Mark has a LLB in Law, a LLM in Criminal Litigation and in 2012 became an Officer of the Order of the British Empire for services to Rule of Law in Afghanistan.

Since retiring from public duty, Mark has been working in numerous countries developing capacity and delivering justice assistance, in particular on counter terrorism projects for the UK Foreign Office in Libya, Pakistan, and Indonesia. He is currently working as Prosecution Advisor in Seychelles on a high-profile corruption, money laundering and terrorism case, heavy with digital evidence, alongside the Anti-Corruption Commission Seychelles and the Attorney General's Office.

Mark first joined the IAP in 2003 and has attended many annual and regional conferences as a delegate and guest speaker. In 2022, Mark spoke in Georgia on Prosecuting crimes on the Darknet, and acted as Chair of the Money Laundering through Virtual Assets session.
