

Simon Clements was a Crown Prosecutor in England and Wales for over 35 years, including 20 years as a senior manager and Chief Crown prosecutor. Since retiring in 2020 he has been a Rule of Law consultant, delivering projects in Turkey, Kosovo and Ukraine where in 2021 he delivered leadership training for over 120 of the most senior prosecutor managers. In his consultancy work he is also an associate Inspector for the CPS Inspectorate, lecturer at Reading University for their criminal law course, and a part time trainer for CPS Prosecutors delivering academic and advocacy training. He co-delivered the pilot course with Sabin Ouellet for prosecutors on Crimes Against Journalists in Sicily in February 2022. He is also a trustee of a charity that supports child victims of crime.