

CAROL SHIRTLIFF-HINDS

- Carol Shirliff-Hinds is the Chief Federal Prosecutor of the Québec Regional Office at the Public Prosecution Service of Canada ("PPSC") where she manages eighty five staff members including prosecutors, paralegals and support staff.
- She was formerly the Deputy Chief Federal Prosecutor of the Ontario Regional Office at the PPSC.
- Carol enjoys giving back to the community by volunteering her time through the Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN). A program focused on educating high school students on legal proceedings through mock trials and sample court cases. For the past two years in a row, the team she coached made it to the finals and came in second in their region.
- In her spare time, Carol enjoys travelling and spending time with her family and their two cats who bring them endless joy.