

Antonio Segovia Arancibia
Synopsis of the presentation

My presentation will analyze the different roles of both the Public Prosecutor's Office and the police, within the criminal justice system of Chile. It will discuss whether the balance of powers and competence between both institutions is adequate or further legal reform is needed. It will also address specifically how the Supreme Court has resolved certain issues related to the interconnection of both institutions in concrete criminal investigations.