

Anamaria Osório

BRASÍLIA, BRASIL

Address

SAF Sul quadra 04
conjunto C bloco B
sala 113/114 CEP:
70.050-900 Brasília-DF
aosorio@mpf.mp.br

Languages

English
Spanish
Portuguese

Skills

Combat of organized crime; money laundering, misconduct of office, special investigation techniques, international cooperation, assets recovery, human trafficking, terrorism, corruption, cybercrime

Profile

Currently holds office as a Federal Prosecutor in the Brazilian Federal Prosecution Service. She is a former member of the International Cooperation Unit at the Brazilian Prosecutor-General's Office. Holds a Law degree from the Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul, and a L.L.M degree in International Law from the University of São Paulo. She also has a MBA degree in Public Administration from the FGV. Mrs. Osório is currently a PhD candidate in International Private Law, and has penned several articles and essays on organized crime, international cooperation and criminal procedure.

Employment History

Advisor to the Federal Circuit Federal Prosecutor in Porto Alegre / RS.
1999 – 2001

Lawyer at Zed Assessoria Jurídica in Porto Alegre / RS
2001

Federal Prosecutor in the State of São Paulo
Present

Chief Prosecutor in the State of São Paulo
2013 - 2018

Member of the Car Wash (Lava-Jato) Task-Force 2017

Education

Bachelor in Law, Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul

L.L.M International Law, University of São Paulo

MBA in Public Administration, Getúlio Vargas Foundation

Courses

Investigative techniques and terrorism, United Nations Crime and Justice Institute

Latin-American Procedural Reform, Justice Centre for the Americas

Leadership Program in Organized Crime, United States Embassy