

Jeehye Son – Prosecutor, Deputy Chief of the International Cooperation Center of the Supreme Prosecutors’ Office of the Republic of Korea

Jeehye Son serves as the Deputy Chief of the International Cooperation Center of the Supreme Prosecutors’ Office of the Republic of Korea since 2018.

Previously, she had been working in District Prosecutors’ Offices since 2008, investigating and prosecuting many diverse kinds of crimes, such as environmental crime, bribery, fraud, gender crime, election illegalities.

In 2014, she was selected as the recipient of a full financial scholarship for overseas training from the Korean Ministry of Justice. Upon selection, she went to the US and studied in Harvard Law school to graduate as an LL.M. in 2016.

She has a BA from Seoul National University, School of Law.