

Biography:

Michael Kovac is the Chief Deputy Attorney General for Nevada's Office of the Attorney General, Criminal Prosecution Division. He is stationed in the city of Las Vegas, where he prosecutes, and supervises the prosecution of, criminal cases throughout the state of Nevada, in the United States.

Kovac is also a Lecturer in Law for the University of Southern California, Gould School of Law. He teaches Constitutional Law and Topics in American Law for the school's LL.M. and M.S.L. programs.