

Biography:

Nicholas Cowdery AO QC is a former President of the IAP and Chair of its Senate. He is a former Director of Public Prosecutions for New South Wales, Australia and now teaches criminal justice courses at universities and participates in international development projects.