

Biography:

Ilias Konstantakopoulos has been a public prosecutor since 2000 and, since 2012, is seconded as a justice counsellor at the Permanent Representation of Greece to the EU. He participates in the Council working parties and represents the Ministry of Justice, Greece, at the co-ordinating committee in the area of police and judicial co-operation in criminal matters (CATS) and at the European Commission expert group on the establishment of the European Public Prosecutor's Office. Konstantakopoulos's portfolio also covers, among others, the judicial response to terrorism and the fight against corruption. He also assists the Permanent Representative at Coreper II and the Greek justice minister at the Justice and Home Affairs Council.
