

Deputy Director General Klaus Meyer-Cabri is the National Member for Germany at Eurojust since September 2014 and since November 2016 one of the two Vice Presidents of Eurojust.

Before his present posting Mr Meyer-Cabri was the chief advisor for the Federal Minister of Justice and Consumer Protection of Germany as the Head of the Office for EU Justice Policy and International Cooperation. Mr Meyer-Cabri has gathered a great deal of experience in international relations due to his many years as a Legal Counsellor at the Permanent Representation of the Federal Republic of Germany to the European Union in Brussels, where he was also involved in the preparatory work to establish Eurojust.
