

Gina Cabrejo

Synopsis:

This presentation will focus on corruption and the current challenges it poses for Latin American countries. Specifically, the presentation will discuss how: (1) bribery and abuse of power are endemic and increasing; (2) promoting international mutual assistance is critical; (3) judges and prosecutors play a critical role in their official capacities to combat it; and (4) Latin America can serve as an illustration to address corruption globally. Additionally, the presenter will offer anti-corruption recommendations through achievable collaborative efforts.