

Synopsis:

Mr. Burrows will explain how prosecutors can investigate and prosecute transnational crime without risking violating other countries' laws, how to obtain evidence in the vast majority of transnational cases, and how to secure extradition of defendants from organized crime cases.